Robotics And Beyond to hold a benefit screening of the film Ready Player One

Special showing to raise funds for summer camp scholarships

Robotics And Beyond, the New Milford-based educational STEM and design nonprofit, will host a private screening of the new movie Ready Player One. This event is a fundraiser for Robotics And Beyond's tuition assistance fund. The screening will be held at 10:30 a.m. on Saturday March 31, at the Bank Street Theater in New Milford. Tickets cost $10, with $3 from each ticket going towards student scholarships for the Robotics And Beyond STEM and design summer camp.

The long-awaited film is based on the highly popular 2011 book Ready Player One, by Ernest Cline. The plot involves a world-wide race to win a game set in virtual reality and attain control over the future of the virtual world. The movie is guaranteed to be on the must-watch list of all gamers, virtual reality fans, and those interested in STEM and design. The movie is rated PG-13.

All are welcome at the special screening, but the theater is limited to 80 seats. Reservations are recommended and can be made by writing to info@roboticsandbeyond.org or calling 860-717-4319. Tickets will be purchased at the door.

About Robotics And Beyond

Robotics And Beyond (RAB) is a New Milford, CT-based not-for-profit educational organization that fosters interest and talent in topics of STEM and design through a variety of in-house and off-site programs. It serves mainstream students and those with special learning needs, and attracts students from a 60-mile radius to year-round programs and summer camps. RAB has also created a highly impactful peer-mentor development program.
